

Statement of Support for a Candidate

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Instructions: This form is for those making statements in support of a nomination. Each candidate must include with their Candidate Statement form two (2) statements in support from same-sex ballroom dancers, organizers, or other participants in the same-sex ballroom dance community.

These statements of support will be used by the Election Committee to determine whether the candidate meets minimum requirements for the position. Neither these statements of support nor the names of the supporters will appear on the ballot.

If you wish to nominate yourself, you must fill out the Candidate Statement form. If you are nominating someone other than yourself, please have your nominee fill out the Candidate Statement form. All forms can be found at www.nasspda.org/about/
